Making Great Communities Happen

Present:

What's in There, What's Missing, and Where Do We Go From Here?

The Affordable Housing Professionals of New Jersey in collaboration with the New Jersey Chapter of the American Planning Association is hosting an all-day symposium on the new proposed COAH Third Round Regulations. The symposium will cover the following topics:

- ❖ A brief history of COAH: 1999 to the present;
- ❖ Various perspectives on the proposed new rules, including municipal, developer, planning and legal perspectives;
- ❖ Specific issues of concern for practitioners; and
- ❖ How to advocate for changes to the proposed new rules.

Experts in these fields will all be joining us to speak on panels to address this timely topic. For a more detailed agenda, click here.
